KUALA LUMPUR RETAIL PROPERTY CENTRE

So, you've been motivated to join the hoardes of property purchasers here in Malaysia. Where do you go now? It isn't as if there are reliable, real estate agents on every corner.

But, as of recently, there is a place you can head to if you've got questions about developments, existing properties to buy or rent, or you just plain want to find the best house, bungalow or condominium in your price range.

The Kuala Lumpur Retail Property Centre, situated opposite the KL Convention Centre, is a highly impressive new hub that helps you find out all you need to about property. It's pretty much a one-stop-shop for buyers, sellers and renters that is open daily.

KLPRC basically a place that tracks up to 3,500 residential properties every day, displaying them by area and price, plus listing detailed information to give you a more rounded picture of the property you are investigating. They include photographs and everything from the location of the nearest International Schools to the nearest golf clubs, shops and other amenities. Whether it's a landed bungalow, penthouse in the sky overlooking KLCC or even a historical townhouse in somewhere like Malacca, it should be listed at KL Retail Property Centre.

Building upon consumer driven and professional property marketing services used in Europe, the property centre concept takes away much of the stress, endless searching and wasted time, to provide you with an educated choice and genuine knowledge about things like Malaysia My Second Home applications, relocation companies and financial services.

The KLPRC's free property search portal, www.propertrack.com, helps make your search even easier with a simple keyword search opening the door to hundreds of homes. We recommend you check it out today.
